Under data protection law, individuals have a right to be informed about how the Trust and school uses any personal data that we hold about them. Owlcotes Multi-Academy Trust complies with this right by providing 'privacy notices' (sometimes called 'fair processing notices') to individuals where we are processing their personal data.

This privacy notice explains how we collect, store and use personal data about individuals who volunteer at our member schools. We, Owlcotes Multi-Academy Trust and its member schools, are the 'data controller' for the purposes of data protection law.

Where you have provided us with consent to use your data, you may withdraw this consent at any time. We will make this clear when requesting your consent and explain how you go about withdrawing consent if you wish to do so.

Some of the reasons listed above for collecting and using personal information about you overlap, and there may be several grounds which justify the school's use of your data.

Collecting This Information

While the majority of information we collect from you is mandatory, there is some information that you can choose whether or not to provide to us.

Whenever we seek to collect information from you, we make it clear whether you must provide this information (and if so, what the possible consequences are of not complying), or whether you have a choice.

We create and maintain a file for each volunteer. The information contained in this file is kept secure and is only used for purposes directly relevant to your volunteering role.

Once your volunteering with us has ended, we will retain this file and delete the information in it in accordance with our records management policy, which can be requested from school.
